Describe your project accurately and how you developed your idea

Re- build, it's a project based on the recycle of PEHD packaging that normally goes to the trash. Even the EVA glue used on the glue gun have been used to make a glossy polish to each piede It's a modular system that can be put together throught the japanese joinery system. There are four modules, that can be connibined to make a divisory in the room. The height depends on the utent request and the colours too, infact there are two combinations of colours (the green one, for the kids, and the black one, that is very similar to marble). It's useful for loft and for the spaces that are in constant change in this world. Re-build your home, your office... rebuild the world in an ecological way.
